

GRAND JURY EXPECTED TO MAKE REPORT TO-DAY

Will Convene This Morning at 10 o'clock to Review Final Draft.

INDICTMENTS ARE EXPECTED

Federal Raid and Statements as to Number of Soldiers Infected Here Stir City to Demand Clean-Up of Conditions.

The grand jury of the Hastings Court convenes this morning at 10 o'clock and it is generally expected will complete its report today. Reports about the work of the grand jury were practically completed last week, but that before returning indictments it was decided to confer again with Mayor Vincent and to summon former Chief of Police J. R. B. Sowell, both were here before the jury on Friday.

This same current report indicates that as a result of this conference some drastic remedial action in the rough draft of the report were either eliminated or softened. Other reports have it, however, that as a result of a conference with the Mayor and Sowell last night, the grand jury will return a number of indictments and a report which will review thoroughly liquor selling and the conditions in the city attempt to place the blame for the lax enforcement of these and other laws.

GRAND JURY HAS KEPT ITS OWN COUNSEL

As a matter of fact, however, the grand jury has been unusually successful in keeping its own counsel. Little or nothing has leaked out of the proceedings. It is known, however, that the grand jury has been unusually thorough in its work.

Several men whose names have been mentioned in connection with bootleg-ing operations have been before the grand jury and so far no indictments have been returned. How far the jury will be impressed with this evidence, or how far it will be impressed with the evidence of the grand jury, is a question which remains to be seen. These revelations began following a poolroom fight, when charges and countercharges were made before the Mayor, involving a number of bootleggers, leading to the removal of Chief of Police J. R. B.
Sowell and to the disappearance from the city of Police Officer Walker, who was accused of having been in league with the bootleggers.

LIBERTY BONDS MAY PAY HIGHER INTEREST

Bonds of First and Second Issues May Be Converted Before
July 1.

Details for the conversion of the first and second Liberty loan bonds into a 4-1/2 per cent interest at the rate of 1-1/2 per cent per $100 of the bonds which is paid on the third issue bonds now being worked out, and conversions will be made through the banks of the city. The first issue bonds, which were issued in 1917, are now being converted into the third issue bonds.
The second issue bonds, which were issued in 1918, are also being converted into the third issue bonds. The Treasury Department will issue new bonds bearing the same rate of interest.

The 4-1/2 per cent bonds, for which the first and second issues are exchangeable, will have the same maturity and the same date of interest payments as the first and second issues.
The first issue bonds, which were issued in 1917, are now being converted into the third issue bonds. The second issue bonds, which were issued in 1918, are also being converted into the third issue bonds. This is the first time since the first issue bonds were issued that the second issue bonds have been converted into the third issue bonds.

DISSEMINATED PERSONS UNDER H. I. C. CONTROL

also been called to the dissemination tance will be considered. The Committee is also scheduled to meet tomorrow at 6 o'clock, but it has only routine matters for consideration.

CIVIL FORCES WILL NEVER MAKE RICHMOND CLEAN

Minister Says City's Regeneration Cannot Be Expected From Those in Power.

CHURCHMEN MUST BE ACTIVE

Not Only Must There Be a Larger Electorate, but the Ballot Itself Must Be Made Clean by Influence of Christianity.

Preaching from Jeremiah 18:17, Rev.
John A. Tate, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, spoke to his congregation in South Richmond last night of the conditions in Richmond at the present time. "Can the Leopard Change His Spots?" was the subject of Mr.
Tate's sermon, and his text was peculiarly applicable to the unfortunate state of the city's civic affairs. The passage quoted was "Can the Leopard change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then may we also do good who are accustomed to do evil?"

"The evil forces of this city will never make Richmond clean," declared the pastor, following his introductory remarks in which he brought out the power of association, habit and environment in a physical sense, which he said, was just as applicable in a moral and spiritual sense. "Remember the birds of the soil," he continued. "It was soiled, ruined forever."
"If we confess that the Mayor and the police authorities have no disposition to cast out evil, and that the evil will be corrected by those who are not," they are fixed in their avenue of life, to change in action and not in heart is an impossibility. Remember the divided house. The children of this world are too wise for that."
Nor will the ungodly citizenship of Richmond seek to have a changed city.
Can an Ethiopian change his color?
Do you expect all of this to cease simply because an order has gone out that somebody is going to put the lid on?
Did the Puritans stop sinning when France because the guillotine was before them? Did Daniel dispense with his private devotions when he knew the idol was signed and sealed? No.
Nor can the forces of evil stop when merely ordered to do so. They cannot arrest themselves.

HOPELESS TO THINK

"OF CHANGE FROM WITHIN Did any one expect that no longer could he be sold when the day of did not. In the prohibition address that I made I said that I knew many would drink and barter it. Has an average person a stone in his back?
A falling body arrest itself in mid-air? A body in motion would never be stopped except by external forces. Can the heart be changed by the will? It is hopeless to think that change wrought from within. Jesus, too, pronounced the hopelessness of help from within. He said, 'Ye cannot bring out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good man, out of his good treasure, bringeth forth good things; and the evil man, out of his evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.'"

Committee on Streets, when the revised ordinance providing for the insurrection of the plan will be considered. The ordinance recently approved by the Street Committee but recommended by the Common Council, has

BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO ADOPT CAFETERIA

Hopes to Serve Food at Less Than One-Third Current Prices.

LONDON, June 23.—The war has brought the cafeteria idea to London.
This plan of serving food to the public at minimum prices is to be undertaken by the government, and will be known as the Ministry of Food's Model National Kitchen and Restaurant.
The Director of National Kitchens announced recently that he hoped by this new method to be able to supply good wholesome food at less than one-third the prices charged at popular tea shops and restaurants in London, and not only pay rent and all establishment charges, but also to clear a profit of 25 per cent.

HOLLAND TO HAVE GENERAL ELECTION

Result Will Be Uncertain Because of Universal and Proportional Representation.

AMSTERDAM, June 23.—The general election in Holland, fixed for July 2, has more than ordinary interest because of the outside world, as it will be the first election in the world in which the principle of universal suffrage will be applied to the election of members of the lower house of the parliament, which has held office throughout the war, by a regular party ministry.
It will be the first election to be held on the basis of the revised constitution, with universal and proportional representation, so that the result is more than usually uncertain.
While the Dutch Socialists have hitherto refused to participate in the government, the party now in power is ready to enter an eventual ministry if satisfactory guarantees are forthcoming regarding the democratic basis of its policy.

Camels Do Their Bit

(By Associated Press.)
CAIRO, June 23.—The importance of camels in transporting war supplies across the deserts has officially been recognized by the Sultan of Egypt.
Special medals were conferred recently upon native owners of the camel corps for war services and exercises at which the presentations were made by the Sultan.

Power of a Uniform

BOSTON, June 23.—Two women were running for a car. One wore a yea-woman's uniform and the other did not.
The conductor waited for the yea-woman and then, "ding, ding," he left the other behind. A few minutes later the yea-woman had blown off the conductor stopped the car and ran back after the hat.

Southern's Earnings Show Increase

Estimated operating revenues of the Southern Railway system for the second week in June aggregated $2,527, 412, as compared with actual earnings of $2,192,727 for the corresponding week of last year, showing an increase of $334,685, according to figures announced yesterday by Comptroller A.
H. Plant.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR A. BEIRNE BLAIR, JR.

Blue Star Removed From St. Paul's Service Flag to Make Way for One of Gold.

In St. Paul's Episcopal Church today at 11 o'clock, there will be a memorial service of commemoration and thanksgiving for A. Beirne Blair, Jr., who was killed in an airplane accident at the naval aviation training school at Pensacola, Fla., last Wednesday. Not alone the friends of the young aviator and of his family, but all persons who are seeking to join in a Christian interpretation of the sacrifices of the war, are invited to the service. It will not be the funeral service of the usual form for the airplane in which Blair was flying fell into the deep waters of the Gulf of Mexico, and the body has not been found. Therefore in the service the element of mortality will be absent. Instead the emphasis will be wholly upon the triumphant message of life set free into larger worlds of immortality that is much more than death.

In addition to the hymns, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War" and "I Hear the Sound of Voices Around the Altar," there will be a reading of the "Crossing the Bar" will be sung to the beautiful music written by Dr. Hartley Carmichael, former rector of St. Paul's.
The service flag of the church will be laid upon the altar, and the blue star which has represented Blair, Jr., among the young men of the congregation, will be placed into the service flag which will be changed for the gold star symbolizing a life laid down in the country's service.

WILL AID STAMP SALES

Association for Preservation of Virginia Antiquities to Attend Patriotic Mass Meeting.

Mrs. J. Taylor Elyson, president of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, yesterday called on all members of that organization to participate in the war savings drive.
She said:

"The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities is among the oldest of the State, its members are personally engaged in the various activities organized to win the war."
"The patriotic activities are more important than that which the National War Savings Committee of Richmond has called upon our people to perform.
We are urgently request that all members of the association attend the patriotic mass meetings in their various precincts on June 28, 'National War Savings Stamp Day,' at the hour designated by the chairman of the committee."

DEHYDRATION PLANT PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

Demonstration of Drying Fruits, Vegetables and Meat Given in Second Market.

WILL CONSERVE MUCH FOOD

Plant Has Been Set Up in Space Donated by the City—Will Be Opened to Public Within Two Weeks—Only One in South.

Simultaneously with the formal testing of the dehydration plant which has been installed in the Second Market, one of the moving picture houses of the city showed a film showing in detail the various processes incident to the drying of fruit, vegetables and meat by machinery. The demonstration at the Second Market was given Saturday morning at 10 o'clock by Miss Laura Judd Bryant, assistant home demonstration agent of Richmond, assisted by Miss Mary Southern.

There were present Miss Ella G.
Avery, assistant director of the State extension work, Miss Ellen A. Rev-olds, supervising agent of the urban work for Virginia, an interested group of urban agents who had been in the city all week attending a conference of city workers, and several county and district home demonstration agents. The demonstration was entirely successful, apples being dried in the dehydrator while the visitors looked on.

The successful operation of the plant will open up an entirely new field of food conservation activities, as the plant in the Second Market is not only the largest, but the only one in the South. Lynchburg, Roanoke and other cities are already planning to follow Richmond's example in having a plant installed. The Richmond plant will not be formally open to the public for two weeks yet, when the headquarters of the home demonstration forces will be moved from the "War Kitchen" at 210 East Grace Street to the space which the city has donated to the operation of the dehydration plant.

Miss Sylvia Slomum, county agent for Henrico County, is planning a canning club short course for Henrico County at Charles Neck farm, beginning July 8.
She will have forty or more girls in attendance. A State short course for canning clubs in charge of Miss Mary Patton, district agent, will be held this week in Henrico. These short courses for the canning clubs are timely and very instructive, as the canning activities throughout the State will be in full swing by the middle of the government forces in the work of conservation of food through the State agencies is getting well deserved recognition, as it is better understood by the women of Virginia.

Miller & Rhoads

"The Shopping Center"

"Halt the Hun" with War Savings Stamps

NOW, the question is "How quickly can we win the war?" Few, if any, of us who love America and interestingly follow the fortunes of her armies and those of our allies have the slightest doubt as to the war's final outcome—the question which most concerns our government, and every one of us right now, is "How quickly can the war be won?"

The whole world now knows it is "up to America." Although more than a dozen nations have espoused democracy's cause, and are fighting democracy's fight, the war will be won when America wins it.

Ships of war and merchantmen are being constructed as rapidly as possible, guns, aircraft and ammunition are being provided in vast quantities, men by the tens of thousands are being trained and taken to France, and along with them go the necessary food, clothing and equipment—as one scans the daily papers it does not require "half an eye" to see and realize that war plans are being developed on the largest scale ever attempted.

But all this requires MONEY—vast sums of it —and the greater the amount placed at the disposal of the government now, THE SOONER WE CAN WIN THIS WAR!

The best way to loan the government money is by purchasing—

War Savings Stamps

—an investment that is absolutely secure and one that will pay you good returns for the use of your money. During June "War Savings Stamps" cost $4.17, and they will bring you $5.00 in 1923.

And then, aside from any consideration of monetary gain, it's the patriotic thing to do. Buy them systematically—every day in the week—SAVE AND SERVE.
